Welcome...

Tucked in the shadow of English Mountain, Penny Walk Bed and Breakfast is a gateway to the Smoky Mountains recreational activities or a destination in itself. Located on the quiet lake side of the mountains, Penny Walk is a world away from noise and hustle. Relax on the patio or screen porch with a cool drink, or wander the wooded paths after a day of sightseeing, boating, or business. In historic Dandridge, Tennessee, we are just a few miles off I-40 at exit 412.

Explore Pigeon Forge and the Great Smokey Mountains National Park from our bed and breakfast accommodations hideaway.

My wife and I are the owners and your hosts at Penny Walk Bed and Breakfast. Mary Alice is a retired nurse executive and I'm a retired Master Sergeant with the Illinois State Police. We came to Tennessee to fulfill our dream of running a bed and breakfast. We found both wonderful people and a beautiful town in Dandridge. Having both worked in people oriented professions, we enjoy meeting new and interesting travelers and sharing with them our appreciation of East Tennessee.

We'd love to have you visit. - Bill
